3. Club Objects and Participation Statement (please read, tick and sign below)

The Objects of the Club shall be to promote all mountain activities in the Lochaber area and beyond, including (but not limited to) hill walking and running — summer and winter; rambling; scrambling; climbing — trad, sport, bouldering, winter and indoor; skiing — downhill, touring and ski mountaineering; snowboarding; mountain biking; conservation work in Glen Nevis.

To meet these Objects, the Club will organise meets in various venues throughout the year which are detailed on the Club website. The Club endorses the Participation Statement agreed by the Union Internationale des Associations d'Alpinisme (UIAA):

'The Polldubh Club recognises that climbing and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury or death. Participants in these activities should be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement.'

The Club shall affiliate annually to Mountaineering Scotland.

- I have read the Participation Statement above, agree to it, and permit the information given here to be shared with Mountaineering Scotland
